

The Occlusive Trap (Why piercings require dry healing)

The Mechanism:

An occlusive ointment on a fresh piercing blocks the fistula opening. It traps moisture and creates a sealed, anaerobic environment favorable to bacteria.

The Piercing Standard:

Sterile isotonic saline.
Isotonic with body fluids, non-cytotoxic,
and preservative-free.