

Dermatologists generally recommend a waiting period of at least 6 months after finishing isotretinoin before getting a tattoo.

Walking into a door frame is fine but the needle must wait.