

Step A: Macrophages capture foreign particles.

Step B: Cells die and release.

Step C: New cells recapture pigment.

Tested over a 90 day interval.

Long term persistence relies on cellular renewal.

The body continually traps the ink.