

Wash needlestick injuries with soap.
Flush mucous membranes with water.
Report the exposure incident immediately.
Seek medical evaluation within 24 hours.

Prompt prophylaxis can prevent bloodborne pathogen infection.
ALWAYS FOLLOW THE EXPOSURE CONTROL PLAN.