

United States regulations mandate facility registration and ingredient listing but lack a restricted substance list for formulation.

The paperwork is immaculate