

Of the 118 samples labeled sterile, nearly a third - 30.5 percent - were contaminated.
Heroic battles with microscopic sea monsters included daily.