

Hands constantly contact public surfaces and accumulate contamination throughout the day.

Hygiene remains a hands-on experience.