

Wash hands thoroughly before any contact.

Clean site with sterile saline spray.

Dry gently using disposable paper towels.

Healing requires strict time and patience.

Consistent daily aftercare prevents severe bacterial infections and complications.
DO NOT RUSH THE PROCESS