

A discounted price must account for consumables, setup time, and payment fees before any profit is realised.

Cleaning supplies will rapidly consume the profit margin and demand dessert.