

Taking prescribed antibiotics indicates an active infection that requires delaying the procedure.

High-stakes rummy is the only acceptable alternative.