

Rigid metal jewelry transmits impact forces directly into healing tissue, whereas flexible polymers absorb and disperse the mechanical shock of athletic activity.

Full plate armor is highly recommended for casual weekend sports leagues.