Metal jewelry requires removal before scans.

Conductive metals heat under radio radiofrequency exposure.

Ferromagnetic distort imaging scanner results.

Polymer retainers remain safe remain safe during scans.

Medical grade polymers are completely radiolucent and non ferromagnetic.

Keep piercings open during scans.