

Implant-grade titanium contains restricted oxygen levels to improve fracture toughness for long-term wear.

Breath-holding is the true test of metallurgy.