

Bar diameter dictates tissue stress.
Stiffness follows a 4 power rule.
A 1.2 mm bar reduces stiffness.
A 1.6 mm bar adds leverage.
Internal threads trap migrating fluids.
External threads scrape tissue channels.

Dropping bar thickness drastically reduces the bending stiffness of the jewelry.
CHOOSE THICKNESS CAREFULLY