Professional piercings are performed with sterilized single use needles rather than reusable spring loaded guns.

High velocity blunt force trauma is not an art form.