
Initial piercing posts are longer to accommodate swelling and must be swapped for shorter posts once settled.

The equivalent of wearing an oversized clown shoe.