

Twisting or touching the jewelry disrupts the natural wound healing process and severely irritates the delicate tissue.

Fidget spinners were invented for a reason.