

True sterilization requires validated autoclave cycles rather than chemical soaks or ultraviolet wands.
Sometimes you just need to bring out the heavy artillery.