

Needles and pigment cups must be strictly disposable and discarded immediately in dedicated hazard containers.
When in doubt simply incinerating the entire workstation remains a valid strategy.