

Every tattoo application injects about 1 mg of ink per cm square. Measuring the exact dosage requires exceptional bodily coordination.