

Used needles must be disposed of immediately into a puncture-resistant sharps container located close to the procedure area.

The hungry red box demands a daily offering.