

The human eye concentrates energy arriving at the cornea by up to 100,000 times.
Just double-checking the alignment.