

Red inks cause severe allergies.

Pigment Red 210 is prohibited.

Pigment Red 22 reacts badly.

Pigment Red 266 remains permitted.

*Red pigment allergies are the most frequent complication in dermatologic practice.
Degradation products of red ink trigger chronic inflammatory responses.*