The championship includes unconventional challenges like paddleboard races alongside mountain biking.

Buoyancy is a severely underrated metric for athletic greatness.