

SAFE: POLYMERS

Polymers remain completely radiolucent.

CONDITIONAL: TITANIUM

Titanium creates severe image distortions.

UNSAFE: STEEL

Steel experiences violent magnetic displacement.

Remove metals before diagnostic scanning.

Polymer retainers are the only non-ferromagnetic materials cleared unconditionally for magnetic imaging.

Titanium is conditional at 3T or less.