

Nashville health officials issued nearly 400 permits in four hours to tattoo artists, body piercers, and technicians.
Bureaucracy only achieves maximum efficiency when there are registration fees to collect.