Nashville health officials approved 400 permits.
Permits measure temporary market access scale.
They do not prove permanent demand.
The scarce resource is productive working hours.
Busy is not the same as profitable.