

High volume requires hardware redundancy.
Moderate use sustains internal battery life.
Traditional copiers serve as reliable backups.

Battery life and print speed reliably support moderate daily shop use.

Exceeding 20 daily stencils requires backup hardware.