

30-50% of piercing complications reaching a healthcare provider are caused by improper aftercare or early jewelry changes.

Cartoon physics rarely apply to human healing times.