

Carpets are not recommended in areas where procedures will take place because of the risk of body fluid spills.
Shag pile flooring belongs to the jungle now.