

Used needles must be deposited immediately into designated puncture-resistant containers without being set down elsewhere.
The evidence belongs in the receptacle.