

All hand and wrist jewellery must be completely removed prior to washing to ensure all skin surfaces are effectively decontaminated.

The skull ring will survive the temporary separation.