

Moving or rotating jewelry during cleaning irritates the delicate tissue forming inside the channel.
Clocks require winding, but ears prefer standing still.