

Once less than roughly 4 mm remains covering the jewelry, the piercing is rejecting and should come out.

We know it hurts when they pack up and leave.