

Systemic signs like a fever over 38°C indicate a genuine piercing infection.

The denial is warming the entire room.