If there is no change over 6 months, a migrated piercing may have finally stabilised.

A total lack of movement is the greatest thrill of all.