

Myofibroblast density was significantly elevated in angled wounds at both 14 and 30 days post-injury.

Setting out tea for the cells is wonderfully polite