DO maintain perpendicular exit angles.

DO neutralize the tension vectors.

DO NOT create subcutaneous tunnels.

DO NOT compress acute margins.

Mechanical offloading is the most effective intervention for scar regression.

REMOVE THE TENSION STIMULUS.