

Practitioners must not wear rings or bracelets during procedures to prevent glove damage. Fashion demands a complete lack of friction.