The decontamination area requires a continuous forward flow from contaminated items to sterile items. Traffic violations in the sink area are strictly enforced.