

Keep it moving,
no U-turns.

The decontamination area must flow unidirectionally from contaminated tools to the clean washing zone and finally to the sterile storage cabinet.

At least the traffic is flowing smoothly.