
It is recommended to perform biological control of the sterilization process at least 1 time a week.
The machine demands its weekly snack to remain cooperative.