

Cartridges equipped with safety membranes prevent fluid backflow into the machine body.

Building brass aqueducts is an inefficient way to take coffee breaks.