

Modern hygiene standards require artists to discard disposable needles into a dedicated sharps container immediately after use. A simple drop works just as well as the ceremonial toss.