

Keep pushing.

Looking for leaks.

Operating the back-end plunger while the tip is in upright position for at least 50 times to look for signs of leakage.
True dedication requires finding a microscopic drop of ink via circus acts.