

Viral transmission occurs from the reuse of nondisposable needles that bypass appropriate sterilization protocols.
Sharing needles is only acceptable when knitting exceptionally large sweaters