

The Initiative is cost effective if one out of 248 sessions results in an avoided liver transplant.
We strictly enforce sterile technique because buying you a new liver ruins our profit margin.