

Injection drug use drives high infection rates.

Injecting drugs raises relative risk to 9.9.

Prison tattooing raises relative risk to 2.1.

Improvised equipment drives transmission.

High background infection rates define prison tattooing environments.

Do not share equipment.