

The sterilised equipment is subsequently stored in its bag ready for use for a maximum of 3 to 4 months.
Expiration dates apply to metal clamps just as much as milk.