
Implant grade titanium provides a lightweight and highly biocompatible option for those with sensitive skin.

Heavy metal is strictly for the record player.